

London, August 1864

Dear Mother
 I received your kind letter of the 25th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same.
 I have not much news to write at present.
 I am still in the same place and doing the same work as before. I have not much time to write at present but I will write a few lines to you now and then. I hope to hear from you soon. I am your affectionate son
 John
