

Octobre 1866

Je dois vous ennuyer beaucoup ce qui ne console et que cela ne dure pas longtemps, car je m'en vais après demain pour fuir.
 La lettre que vous avez eu la bonté de me faire parvenir est une anticipation que les colis avec les tableaux font déjà en France et qui ils ne tarderont pas à arriver à Paris.
 Pourtant ils ne viendront pas avant six à sept jours. Jusqu'à présent les frais ne montent qu'à une 15^{ème} de francs. Voulez vous que je vous laisse quelque chose pour les premiers frais de transport? etc.

Sur l'enveloppe de votre lettre on me re-demande la liste engouffrés à la li-bririe, je les ai renvoyés aujourd'hui, les avez-vous reçus? J'ai peur que le commissionnaire n'ait égaré le paquet.
 J'ai acheté aujourd'hui une photographie de Michellet, y a-t-il une de précaution l'artiste qui a fait cette belle tête que j'admire ???
 Tout à vous, à revoir.

Je suis aujourd'hui à Versailles et je reviens la fin mercredi, je viendrai vous serrer la main.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air.
It felt like I had been in a cocoon for hours. The pilot smiled at me as we taxied down the runway. I looked out the window and saw the green fields stretching to the horizon. The sun was just starting to set, painting the sky in shades of orange and red. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of peace wash over me. It was exactly what I needed after a long day of work. The plane touched down smoothly and we rolled to a stop. I stepped out and took another deep breath.
The world was so beautiful.

I had been told that the weather was perfect. It was just what I needed.
The pilot was friendly and the service was excellent. I had heard that the plane was old, but it was in great condition. The flight attendant was kind and helpful. I had a great time. The food was delicious. The music was perfect. I had a great time. The pilot was friendly and the service was excellent. I had heard that the plane was old, but it was in great condition. The flight attendant was kind and helpful. I had a great time. The food was delicious. The music was perfect.

I hope you had a good trip.
I'll see you when you get back.
